

Breton Electric Earns Coveted Angie's List Super Service Award

Award reflects businesses' consistently high level of customer service

For the fifth year in a row, Breton Electric has been awarded the prestigious 2011 Angie's List Super Service Award, an honor bestowed annually on approximately 5 percent of all the businesses rated on the nation's leading provider of consumer reviews on local service and health providers.

"We are thrilled to once again receive this award," said Office Manager Wendy Dennis, who helps run the company with her husband Steve Breton. "We always do our best, but the extra recognition is appreciated by all of us at Breton Electric," added owner Steve Breton.

"Only a fraction of the businesses rated on Angie's List can claim the sterling service record of being a Super Service Award winner because we set a high bar," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "The fact that Breton Electric can claim Super Service Award status speaks volumes about its dedication to consumers."

Angie's List Super Service Award winners have met strict eligibility requirements including earning a minimum number of reports, an exemplary rating from their clients and abiding by Angie's List operational guidelines.

Ratings are updated daily on Angie's List, but members can find the 2011 Super Service Award logo next to business names in search results on AngiesList.com.
